PROVINCETOWN, CAPE COD

It doesn't take long to discover why Provincetown is so popular. You'll find miles of warm –water beaches, fresh-caught seafood, hiking and biking trails and challenging golf courses. All this in a peninsula that's known for its distinctive architectural style of gable-roofed houses, their shingles weathered to a soft gray.

What to do while in Provincetown

Explore the Island by bike: Grab the ferry to Provincetown (book your ticket through our concierge). Upon arrival walk straight to Arnolds bike Rental (329 Commercial Street; a five minute walk from the dock. Ph: 508-487- 0844) and rent a bike for the whole day. With your bike, bike down Commercial Street and explore the amazing town and then go down to the beach at Herring Cove and bike along the amazing stretches of sand.

Start your morning off with a great cup of coffee at either of these two locations:

Joe's Coffee and Espresso Bar: 148a Commercial Street, (508) 487-6656

Wired Puppy: 379 Commercial Street, (508) 487-0017; www.wiredpuppy.com

Sunbathing and swimming at surrounding beaches, including town beach west of the village, or Herring Cove and Race Point, on the ocean side.

--Race Point Beach: Located on the Atlantic Ocean side of Provincetown Race Point Beach is a great place to watch the sunset.

--Herring Cove Beach: Miles of beaches on the Massachusetts Bay side of Provincetown. The left side of Herring Cove is the gay and lesbian beach and to the right of the bath house is the family beach.

--Long Point Beach and Long Point Lighthouse: LPB is accessible by water taxi from the pier on Commercial Street or a very long hike across a breakwater to Wood End and then across the sand.

Stroll through Provincetown center: A wonderful assortment of fine galleries, shops and great restaurants that have made it a haven for artists, fishermen, the gay community and summer visitors. Make sure to walk down Commercial Street as it's the main avenue in the town and there will be bound to be something that will catch your eye.

Whale watch trips (3½-4 hr. long) depart from Provincetown daily.

Dune shacks: This is something you will not want to miss. Spread out throughout the dunes, are numerous small rustic shacks that today are recognized as historical places. These were once homes to artists like E.E Cummings and Harry Kemp as they sought for a place of inspiration. Take a tour with “Arts Dune Tours” and have a chance to see them for yourself!
